

Farm Resettlement Project, 1930s: Primary Source Set

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowder and daughter in their garden in San Luis Valley Farms, a resettlement community	Spanish-American farmers	Wife of Farm Security Administration resettlement resident	Wife and daughter of resettlement resident
Resettlement farms were issued by the Farm Security Administration to destitute victims of the Dust Bowl	Spanish-American rehabilitation clients working in the field of their farm near San Luis, Colorado, 1939	She is preserving vegetables in her home, San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado	Preparing beans for canning, San Luis Valley Farms

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	Library of Congress Prints and Photographs, online catalog	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Farm Resettlement Project, 1930s

Resettlement farmstead	Community building	A home in the resettlement project	Harvesting grain
San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado	San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado	San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado	Harvesting grain on farm of FSA (Farm Security Administration) client near San Luis, Colorado

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	Library of Congress Prints and Photographs, online catalog
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Farm Resettlement Project, 1930s

Scene in school room of resettlement project	Young children in schoolyard of resettlement community	Another photo of school room in community building of resettlement project	Older children of resettlement families in school yard outside community building
Students and a teacher in a school room in San Luis Valley Farms	Children of resettlement families playing in the schoolyard, San Luis Valley Farms	San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado	San Luis Valley Farms, Colorado

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

See also PSS called “Women and Family Life” and “Farming, 1930s Onward.”

