

Labor and Union History: Primary Source Set

Sociedad Protección Mutua de Trabajadores Unidos, Pamphlet Cover	Sociedad Protección Mutua de Trabajadores Unidos, original building	SPMDTU building in Chama	Sociedad Protección Mutua de Trabajadores Unidos
View of the cover of a pamphlet for SPMDTU. The society was organized in 1900 in Antonito, CO by Hispanic Americans as a means to fight back against racial and discriminatory practices in the San Luis Valley	This building (still in use), was built in Antonito, Costilla County, in 1900 at the founding of the organization. It now houses the central Concilio for the SPMDTU	Juan Olivas near the La Sociedad Protección Mutua de Trabajadores Unidos, Concilio #2 hall in Chama (Costilla County), probably built in first half of 20th century	Hispanic American men pose at a meeting of the SPMDTU in their building in Antonito, CO. 1935(?) Current Website of the SPMDTU: http://www.spmdu.org/who-we-are/la-historia/

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From website of SPMDTU	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Labor and Union History

Road crew, Costilla County	Lettuce Strike, Center, CO	Striking Lettuce Workers	Leroy "Korn" Maes
Hispanic American men employed on a WPA road project pose near a tractor and a road grader on a dirt road probably in Costilla County, 1935	A member of the United Farm Workers of America stands beside his wife and holds his baby during a lettuce workers' strike in Center, CO, 1970	Striking workers pray near a Mobil gas station during the Finerman lettuce strike in Center (Saguache County), 1970	Leader of the United Farm Workers of America during strike against the Finerman Lettuce company in Center, 1970

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Labor and Union History

From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	From Auraria Library Digital Collections	Auraria Library, Denver, Digital Collections via Denver Public Library
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link