

Families and Children: Primary Source Set

Gómez Family, 1912	Rivera Family, 1887	Trujillo Brothers, 1910s	Della Marie Lovato, 1911	Julian Estevan, 1890
Family portrait taken at the time of the baptism of Mercedes Gómez in Vigil (Las Animas County), 1912	Francisco Rivera, his wife Benigna Córdova de Rivera and their children, probably in San Francisco Plaza, 1887	The Trujillo brothers from Mora County, New Mexico, and Las Animas. Leopoldo (middle front) was a miner at the Frederick Mine in Valdez (Las Animas County). Photo taken in 1910s	Baby Della Marie Lovato of Trinidad, 1911?	Baby Julian Estevan Lobato from Hoehne (Las Animas County) in his baptismal gown, 1890

From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Families and Children

Felipe and Maria Dolores Baca with their children, around 1875	Women and Children in front of adobe house	F. C. Baca and Wife, Wedding Portrait, 1905	Cordova Sisters of Hoene, late 1850s	Family in front of a building
	Trinidad, 1890-1910		Antonia, Benigna (front), Maria Salome, and Magdalena (back), daughters of Juan Bautista Cordova	Trinidad, 1940s?

From Trinidad History Museum	From History Colorado's online collection	From History Colorado's online collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From History Colorado's online collection
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Families and Children

Woman with Children in Sailor Suits	Jose de la Cruz Paiz and his daughter, Maria	Wedding Party in Trinidad, 1890-1910	Wedding announcements for Latinos/as from Alamosa and Segundo, 1933	Portrait of Eusebio Chacón (son of Rafael Chacón) and Sophia Barela (dau. of Senator Barela), 1891
Trinidad, 1890	Apishapa, 1860		The two Latino couples will live in Alamosa and Segundo	They married in the Chapel of San Francisco in Barela, Colorado, and their wedding celebration was held at her father's ranch, El Porvenir.
			TWO COUPLES ARE MARRIED AT ST. GUADALUPE CHURCH AT WESTON LAST MONDAY WESTON, Feb. 3.—Miss Rosana Trujillo became the bride of Ralph Cordova at a quiet wedding ceremony solemnized at the church of St. Guadalupe at Weston Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Agapito Martínez witnessed the ceremony and only a few intimate friends were present. The bride's home for the past few years has been in Weston and the bridegroom is from Alamosa. The couple will make their home in Alamosa. Mrs. Martínez is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trujillo and her husband the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Cordova. Another couple also took the marriage vows at St. Guadalupe church in Weston Monday when Miss Emilia Montano became the bride of Joe Velasquez. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Medina, of Valdez. Both Mr. and Mrs. Velasquez live in Segundo where they will make their home. Velasquez works at the Frederick mine.
From History Colorado's online collection	From Auraria Library Digital Collection	From History Colorado's online collection	From The CF&I Blast, Feb. 3, 1933, Hart Research Library, History Colorado, OEH #2399, Reel 2	Auraria Library, Denver, Digital Collections
Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link	Resource link

Families and Children

Video Clip from Interview with Mayor Garduno, Early Life in Trinidad.	Video Clip from Interview with Judge Manzanares, Early Life in Trinidad.	Video Clip from Interview with Yolanda Romero and Jack & Georganne Vallejos, Early Trinidad Settlements.	Video Clip from Interview with Yolanda Romero and Jack & Georganne Vallejos, Traditions and Family.
In this 2018 interview, Mayor Garduno speaks about growing up in Trinidad with her family. Although she would like to remember more of the history of her parents, she recalls how all of her family came to live in Trinidad. Length: 2:37.	Judge Manzanares recalls his memories of growing up in Trinidad and how the city was back then. He highlights his mom as his hero, as she raised him and all his five siblings, modeling for them what it was to value education. Additionally, he recalls how his own family supported him through his career. 2018. Length: 3:57.	Georganne Vallejos speaks about her family settling in Trinidad in "El Barrio." 2018. Length: 1:13.	In this 2018 interview, Yolanda Romero and Georganne Vallejos speak to the way traditions in families have changed from the ways their elders raised them in Trinidad. Georganne notices the importance of grandparents in helping raise the children. Length: 2:26.

A clip from an interview done in Trinidad in August, 2018	A clip from an interview done in Trinidad in August, 2018	A clip from an interview done in Trinidad in August, 2018	A clip from an interview done in Trinidad in August, 2018
Resource Link	Resource Link	Resource Link	Resource Link